SUGAR IMPORTS
ON THE INCREASE

THIS YEAR A RECORD-BREAKER.

Statement of Treasury Bureau of Statistics Shows Amount Paid Other Countries for This Staple to Be $115,000,000.

Sugar imports into the United States in the calendar year 1901 will exceed those of any preceding year by about 550,000,000 pounds, and the cost about $115,000,000. The highest record of sugar importations in any preceding year were, in quantity, those of 1899, 4,399,749,678 pounds; while in value, the figures of 1893 made the highest record, $123,083,217.

The estimate of the Bureau of Statistics for the calendar year 1901 is based upon the actual figures of importations from foreign countries for ten months ending with October, to which are added the actual figures of sugar shipped from Hawaii to the United States. To these are added estimates for November and December, both from foreign countries and Hawaii; this method of obtaining the Hawaiian and Porto Rican figures being necessary by reason of the fact that commerce with those islands is no longer included in the statistics of the foreign commerce of the United States.

An Increase of Thirty Per Cent.

This shows an increase of about 30 per cent in the sugar importations into the United States in the decade, the figures for 1891 being 3,279,739,541 pounds against 4,329,749,678 pounds in 1901, the actual increase in the decade thus being in round terms, one billion pounds. The enormous quantity can perhaps be better realized when it is stated that accepting the average car load at 20,000 pounds, the sugar importations of 1901 would be sufficient to load 78,000 cars.

In addition to this enormous figure of 4,329,749,678 pounds imported, the sugar production in the United States for the year is presumably about 690,000,000 pounds, this being about the annual average during recent years.

Cane Sugar From Tropics.

Of this 4,329,749,678 pounds of sugar imported into the United States in 1901, more than 4,000,000,000, of fully 85 per cent, is cane sugar from the tropics. The remainder is chiefly beet sugar chiefly from Germany and Austria-Hungary. In the ten months ending with October, the importations of beet sugar amounted to about 550,000,000 pounds, out of a total importation of more than 4,000,000,000 pounds. Of the more than 4,000,000,000 pounds of cane sugar imported during the year, about 3 per cent comes from Cuba, about 15 per cent from the East Indies, and the remainder chiefly from the West Indies and Central and South American countries.

The following table shows the total sugar importations, quantity, and value, by calendar years from 1891 to 1901, November and December of 1901 being estimated:

1891, 3,279,739,541 pounds, valued at $109,612,854;	1892, 3,612,729,335 pounds, valued at $106,211,573;	1893, 4,399,749,678 pounds, valued at $123,083,217;	1894, 4,092,950,497 pounds, valued at $109,084,344;	1895, 3,579,324,754 pounds, valued at $99,257,838;	1896, 4,108,193,901 pounds, valued at $92,214,408;	1897, 4,101,211,596 pounds, valued at $81,729,142;	1898, 3,427,249,146 pounds, valued at $77,324,097;	1899, 4,329,749,678 pounds, valued at $108,124,919;	1900, 4,057,029,255 pounds, valued at $102,742,492;	1901 (estimated), 4,329,749,678 pounds, valued at $115,000,000.

Postoffice Legislation.

The House Committee on Postoffice and Postroads will not organize until after the holiday recess. The committee room is undergoing repairs which will not be finished before the latter part of next week. Chairman Lord says as soon as Congress reconvenes in January, the committee will at once begin work on the Postoffice Appropriation bill.

NATIONAL LEAGUE'S END.

Developments Today Indicate Disruption of the Organization.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20.—Developments in the baseball world were brought out before Judge Scott when court convened this morning which shows that long litigation may be expected between the opposing forces.

It will probably result in the complete disruption of the National League. Judge Scott granted the motion, and under the court's ruling the case will remain in statu quo until the case is brought to trial to show whether Spalding's election was legal or not.

Kiddie stated after the court that it might be a year before the case came to trial.

Baseball men regard the passages as a victory for Spalding, who, it is believed, will either join his forces with the American League to form a twelve club, or place clubs in other cities and form a new eight-club league.

The league is at present bound hand and foot. Spalding cannot at present change any of the plans of the league. Few believe that the main issue will ever be settled and the National League will in all probability die a quiet death in the dockets of the court.

FUNERAL OF J. K. BALDWIN.

Former Treasury Watchman to Be Buried at Arlington.

The funeral of James K. Baldwin, formerly a well-known watchman at the Treasury, who died at Fredericksburg, Va., on Wednesday, will be held at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow at Lee's Chapel, 332 Pennsylvania Avenue Northwest. There the body is expected to arrive this afternoon. The interment will be made at Arlington Cemetery.

Mr. Baldwin was born in Ashtabula county, Ohio, June 29, 1833. He moved to Wisconsin with his parents shortly before the civil war. In 1861 he enlisted in the Fourth Battery, Wisconsin Light Artillery, and rose to the rank of quartermaster sergeant. At the close of the war he married Miss Jane Tabb, daughter of Captain William Tabb, one of Spottsylvania county's well-known citizens.

Mr. Baldwin was appointed to a position in the Treasury Department about 1886, and was at that post nearly a day until he resigned on November 1 last, on account of illness. He had many friends in Washington, especially in the Treasury Department.

He was a member of Fredericksburg Lodge, No. 4, F. A. A. M., the Union Veteran Legion, and the Grand Army. A widow and four children, Mrs. Charles O. Doten, James Baldwin, and Charles R. Baldwin, of this city, and Mrs. Laumon W. Bowling, of Spottsylvania county, Va., survive.

Useful Gifts for Children.

The holiday season is pre-eminently the children's season. We have everything serviceable and useful for their wants all the year around, but at this particular time many departments are more carefully and abundantly supplied than usual. Saturday being children's day, we have prepared and submit the following list of gift articles. It is rather comprehensive and contains things that are useful and serviceable, and they are all suitable for Christmas gifts, and they are marked at uniformly moderate prices.

We Are Pleased to Announce
That Several Cases of New

Have been distributed through the stock, thus filling again the empty places made by the extraordinary buying of the past few days. Four elevators run right into the heart of the store, and it's a great roomy, convenient, comfortable place to shop, with plenty of light and proper ventilation, and there are plenty of people to serve you.
